

GINGERBREAD HOUSE IN FELT

“ Here is my little Gingerbread House which is made in felt and i'm really pleased with it. I hope you enjoy making lots of them in all sorts of colours and themes. Why not make a Beach Hut, Country Cottage, Yule Cottage or Gardener's Shed. The template is adaptable to whatever takes your fancy and I look forward to seeing them all.”

You will need:

Brown, red and beige A4 sheets of felt,
Seed beads,
Embroidery cotton,
Superglue and glitter glue,
Plastic sparkle gems usually used in cardmaking,
Dressmakers Chalk,
Buttons and Toy Stuffing.

To make:

1. Print out the template so that it fills an A4 size sheet of paper.
2. Cut out the pieces from the template.
3. Place each piece on the corresponding felt and draw around each of them with chalk.
4. Cut out the felt pieces.
5. Decorate and embroider each piece before attaching them to one another. Use the superglue to attach the gems and spread a thin layer of glitter glue on the surface of the roof to add some sparkle. Allow to dry.
6. Stitch the walls and bottom of the house together using blanket stitch.
7. Stuff and then stitch the roof in place using blanket stitch.
